

Altoona Corvette Club

March 2026

Hello Everyone,

Well, it seems winter does not want to release its cold grip from us anytime soon. Even that groundhog said we had six more weeks of winter to endure. Hopefully the weather will change and warmth will return so we can get our cars out for some enjoyment. I hope everyone is surviving this cold weather well. Through another log on the fire or turn the thermostat up and think of the upcoming spring.

It was nice to see everyone at the Allegro for our annual Valentine's Day Dinner. Unfortunately, I had to leave early. I hope all that attended had a nice meal and good fellowship. We have a few more events coming up, our Spring Pizza Party will be March 7th at Marzoni's in Greenwood and our first trip of the year will be the 18th to the Eastern Museum of Motor Racing in York Springs, PA. This looks to be a good time with lots of interesting cars and racing history to see. I hope you can plan to attend.

In closing, curse that Punxsutawney Phil, but spring is just a few weeks away. Stay warm and we will soon be out driving our favorite cars.
